But if you want to walk far, walk together."

- Ratan Tata

SET SAIL TOWARDS UNPARALLELED SUCCESS

Radiant Jharkhand fosters a business-friendly environment and accountable governance to support entrepreneurs and industrial growth. The exhibition showcases progress across sectors including R&D, Infrastructure, Education, Healthcare, Science & Technology, MSMEs, Railways, Waterways, Agriculture, Defence, Law & Justice, IT, Women & Child Welfare, Banking, Commerce & Trade, Ports & Shipping, Demography, and Culture & Heritage. Aligned with the 'Viksit Bharat' and 'Self-reliant India' initiatives, it promotes local innovations, reduces trade deficits, and boosts Indian products globally, driving economic and national progress.

"JAMSHEDPUR: HERITAGE MEETS PROGRESS"

JAMSHEDPUR largest city in Jharkhand, is celebrated for its well-planned infrastructure and significant contributions across various sectors. Known as the "Steel City of India," it was founded by industrial pioneer Jamsetji Tata, who envisioned a city that would embody his ideals of industrial and social progress. Home to Tata Steel, established in 1907, Jamshedpur has been a catalyst for regional industrial and economic growth.

It is a hub for education, healthcare, and tourism with landmarks like Jubilee Park and Dimna Lake. Its economy thrives on MSMEs, manufacturing, and agriculture, while its strategic location aids logistics. A culturally diverse city, it is poised for sustained growth.
